

RUSSIA 2014

Find yourself in a whole new world – the world of Peter the Great and Communism. We'll visit the Red Square, the Kremlin and maybe Mr. Putin in Moscow and try to figure out the remains of the Red Army in a country that might differ a lot from what you are used to.

We'll take a high-speed train northwest and discover one of the most beautiful cities in Europe, St. Petersburg, with the Hermitage and fantastic palaces like the residence built by Peter the Great that will take your breath away with its fabulous gardens. Maybe you find out why it was once named after Lenin and why the Russians still have so much influence in Eastern Europe.

Come see for yourself!
